RENT-A-TEXT

We know that going to college costs more now than ever before...and books are big-ticket items. To help ease the burden, we now offer your students the ability to rent their textbooks. Rent-A-Text will offer the largest selection of rental textbooks in the country. It also will provide even greater convenience and flexibility.

Why should students rent?

They (and you) will save more money on their textbooks. On average, a student saves more than half the price of a new book. And, it's easy.

How does it work?

- First find out if the book they need is a rental title. Special red tags on the bookshelves in the store and a special icon online will indicate that a title is available to rent.
- Next complete the short rental agreement. This can be done online or at the register in the store. They will need to be 18 years of age and provide ID and a credit card number as collateral which means, of course, that you might come into play here for your students to be able to rent.

Can all books be rented?

We're working hard with your professors and textbook publishers to identify as many rental titles as possible. Generally speaking, a book needs to be widely used and early in its life cycle (a recently released edition) to be a rental title.

How is Rent-A-Text different?

- Unlike other rental programs, a rented textbook can be converted into a purchase at any time during the rental period.
- If a student drops a class, they can return the book at the bookstore during the return period, for a refund. (They'll also need the receipt.)
- Books can be rented online and picked up right at the store.
- Students can highlight and write in the book. Normal wear and tear is anticipated.
- Students can check-in the books at the store at the end of the term and not have to bother with shipping them anywhere. Even books rented through the bookstore's website at www.avemaria.bkstr.com can be returned to the store.
